- Other coaches in my space have books — and they're getting the clients I should be getting
- I'm not a writer, but I know my life experience belongs in a book
- I don't know how to turn a book into actual coaching clients
- I'm worried I'll write it and nobody will read it
- I just don't know where to start

SECTION 5: "WHERE COACHES GET IT WRONG"

Three blocks. Visual contrast — use  or warning icons. This creates the "you need help" feeling that drives the purchase.

Section headline: Why Most Coaching Books Fail

Block 1:  The book doesn't lead anywhere

Most coaches dump everything they know onto pages. No structure. No path. The reader finishes and thinks "that was nice" — and moves on. No call. No client. No money.

Your book needs to be built so the reader's last thought is "I need to work with this person."

Block 2: ❌ Nobody ever sees it

Malcolm Gladwell never ran a single ad for his books. Tony Robbins doesn't run ads. They get people with big audiences to promote them. Most coaches skip this entirely. They put the book on Amazon and wait.

Block 3: ❌ Author vs BESTSELLING Author

You can get a book on Amazon. But "an author" means nothing — there are over a million of them. A BESTSELLING author? That changes everything. That's what got Mynoo to the United Nations. That's what turned Aila from unknown to $200K in contracts.

Closing line: We help you get all three right. In four weeks.

SECTION 8: THE PRICE — Why $47

Section headline: Here's Why It's $47

Copy:

The regular price for Breakthrough Author Live is $950.

Up until now, every coach who's been through this came from inside our community. They already knew us. They already trusted us.

You don't know me. You've probably never heard of Coach Foundation before today. And paying $950 to someone you just found on the internet? That's a big ask. I get it.

So here's what we're doing and why.

We've built a whole team around coaching books. Editors. Designers. Launch people. Media teams. All for coaches. And we're always looking for the next great coach with a book that should be out in the world.

Breakthrough Author Live is how we find those coaches.

These four weeks let us work together. You get to see what we do. We get to see your idea, how you show up, what you're about. And if after the four weeks it makes sense for us to take your book the rest of the way to bestseller together — great, we'll talk. If not — you walk away with your idea locked in, your outline done, your first chapter edited, and a launch plan you can run with.

Either way, you win.

SECTION 9: WHO THIS IS FOR / NOT FOR

Two columns side by side (stacks on mobile).

This IS for you if:

- You're a coach who wants to use a book to grow your business
- You've been thinking about writing a book for years
- You want to become a bestselling author
- You're willing to show up for 4 weeks and do the work
- You coach in any niche — health, wellness, personal development, business, relationships, executive, or any other area

This is NOT for you if:

- You want to write fiction, a children's book, or a memoir unrelated to your business
- Your book isn't connected to a coaching or consulting business
- You're looking for someone to do 100% of the work with zero involvement from you
- You're not willing to put in any effort over the 4 weeks

SECTION 10: FAQ

Section headline: Questions You Might Have

Q: Can I attend if I have calendar conflicts with the live sessions? A: Yes. We record every session and we support you outside of the live calls too. We have this very often — many coaches go through the replays and still get everything done.

Q: What if I already have a manuscript or a book started? A: Great. We'll refine what you have, structure it properly, and build your launch strategy. You're ahead of the game.

Q: What if it takes me longer than 4 weeks? A: That's why the Mastermind stays open. Our focus in Breakthrough Author Live is to get the train moving. Many coaches complete their entire book within 6 months. Some finish during the 4 weeks. Either way, we're there for you after.

Q: Is this just training videos or do you actually help me? A: Our editing team actively works on your material. They review your book idea, your outline, and edit your first chapter. This is hands-on, not just information.

Q: What coaching niches does this work for? A: All of them. We've published bestsellers across health, wellness, personal development, business, finance, relationships, executive coaching, and many others. The system works regardless of niche.

Q: What's the money-back guarantee? A: Go through all 4 weeks. If you don't feel it was worth your time, we'll refund every penny. No questions asked. And you keep everything we've done for you.

Q: Are there any hidden fees? A: None. $47 is the total investment for the challenge.

SECTION 11: FINAL CTA — Closing

Copy:

How long have you been thinking about this book?

Five years? Ten? Twenty?

Every year it gets pushed. And the clients, the speaking gigs, the media, the standing, the legacy — all of it stays on the table. Waiting.

You have something that can help people. You've known it for years. Maybe decades.

Forty-seven dollars. Four weeks. Your book finally gets out of your head and into the world. Where it belongs.
